BEAUX STRATAGEM' TO-NIGHT.

Ernesto Berumen, a planist who forsook his native Mexico for New York, gave his annual recital yesterday in Acollan Hall. His programme began with a chaconne by Ha. J., which was followed by a "Minuetto of Hayda and Friedman's arrangement of Gluck's "Ballet of the Happy Spirits." Some of the music, for example the chaconne, Sgambati's "Nenia" and a long winded theme and variations by Chevillard, seemed hardly worth while.

An "Allegro de Concert" by Granados was especially well liked, and so was a berceuse of Faure arranged by Cortot.
